The Osbournes

The Osbournes are a real family. They live in the US. Now they are nearly as popular as the famous Simpsons family whom people know from television. There are four people in the Osbournes family. The father, Ozzy Osbourne, is a successful heavy rock star. His wife's name is Sharon. They have two children — Jack, who is sixteen years old, and Kelly, who is seventeen.

Sharon loves dogs and they have more than ten dogs in the house. Jack is lazy, he hates school and spends half of his life eating pizza and playing computer games. Kelly is not a very pleasant girl. She thinks that the world is unfriendly and life is boring. Ozzy becomes angry easily and shouts at his wife and children when they ask him to get up early and walk the dogs.

A lot of parents in America believe that the Osbournes are a very bad example for their children, especially¹ Ozzy and Sharon. But Kelly says that her parents are wonderful. "I love them so much. They are always there to help us."
